

JOURNAL OF THE ROYAL ARMY MEDICAL CORPS ARMED FORCES MENTAL HEALTH SPECIAL ISSUE

Volume 154, Number 2, June 2008

Foreword	90	G Reid
From The Editor	91
Editorial	92	A Personal View I Palmer
Quote, Unquote	94
Original Papers	95	A Personal Experience
	96	Combat-related disorders: a persistent chimera D Alexander, S Klein
	102	The Operational Mental Health Consequences of Deployment to Iraq for UK Forces N Jones, N Greenberg, NT Fear, M Earnshaw, P McAllister, G Reid, S Wessely
	107	The symptoms and recognition of post-traumatic stress reactions P McAllister, JH Hughes
	110	The management of post traumatic stress reactions in the military J Harrison, J Sharpley, N Greenberg
	115	A Personal Experience
	118	Life as a military community psychiatric nurse R Lewis, B Mushonga, A Simpson
	120	A Career in military psychiatry A Pook, M Tarn, J Harrison, P McAllister, N Greenberg
	124	Trauma risk management (TRiM) in the UK Armed Forces N Greenberg, V Langston, N Jones
	128	Prolonged incarceration: effects on hostages of terrorism W Busuttil
	136	The Mental health of veterans D Murphy, A Iversen, N Greenberg
Suggested Reading	141

Views and opinions expressed in this Journal are those of the authors and imply no relationship to MOD or AMS policy, present or future.